[redacted] United States Park Police Detective, was interviewed at 555 4th Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20535, [redacted] was advised of the official identity of the interviewing Agents and that the purpose of the interview was regarding the Park Police shooting, of TREY JOYNER, in the Trinidad area, on 06/08/2009. Also in attendance was Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] attorney. [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] became physically emotional, about the shooting incident, during the interview. Three United States Park Police (USPP) Detectives were in an unmarked, blue Chevrolet Impala police car. [redacted] was in the rear passenger side seat, United States Park Police Detective [redacted] was in the front passenger seat and United States Park Police Detective [redacted] was driving. [redacted] pulsed the siren a couple of times to pull over TREY JOYNER. JOYNER's car slowed down but continued going, then finally lurched or jerked to a stop. [redacted] stopped approximately five feet behind JOYNER's car.

[redacted] was not a member of any Task Force. [redacted] only had information that they were going to be stopping a man in possession of a gun. [redacted] was unsure if he even knew the individual's name. [redacted] believed that JOYNER should have stopped and either given up or just run. However, [redacted] saw JOYNER bend down in the car and believed that it had something to do with the gun, which he knew JOYNER had. He saw JOYNER get out of his car and heard something metallic hit the ground.

[redacted] began screaming, "gun! gun!", or something to that effect. [redacted] moved forward between the Impala and JOYNER's car. The officers had done this hundreds of times before, but none of them had to shoot before. [redacted] saw JOYNER start to run, took a couple of steps toward the alley, turn around, and then dipped down. [redacted] then saw [redacted] come into his line of view. When JOYNER turned and dipped down, [redacted] believed that JOYNER was going for the gun and [redacted] went for cover behind the rear passenger side of JOYNER's car, by the tire.

[redacted] was struggling with JOYNER. JOYNER was directly in front of [redacted] across the car, while [redacted] was slightly to the left in [REDACTED] view. [REDACTED] could not recall where the other officers were during the shooting. [REDACTED] saw the gun in JOYNER's hand as it cleared the trunk of JOYNER's car and JOYNER swept the gun up [REDACTED] body. [REDACTED] had his hand on JOYNER's wrist or forearm and JOYNER attempted to point the gun down at [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was afraid to move forward. He heard [REDACTED] yelling at the top of his lungs, "Police, drop the gun!" (or something to that effect) and believed his own voice was drowned out by [REDACTED]. JOYNER did not say anything. [REDACTED] saw the struggling. [REDACTED] and JOYNER broke apart while JOYNER still had the gun in his hand. JOYNER turned to the left, away from [REDACTED] then [REDACTED] shot JOYNER. [REDACTED] didn't know that he had shot, though he had shot twice. [REDACTED] remembered feeling the recoil of his handgun. [REDACTED] believes he didn't hear any shots before he shot. Overall, [REDACTED] stated that he did hear shots, but did not know where they came from. The gun fell out of JOYNER's hand, JOYNER took two or three steps into the alley, and said something to the effect of "I give up," "I quit," or "I'm down," and sat down in the alley. [REDACTED] did not know if JOYNER had been shot because he did not see blood on JOYNER's T-shirt at first, but then he saw it appear very quickly. [REDACTED] noted that he saw JOYNER wearing a hat that day.

After the shooting, [REDACTED] returned to the Impala and radioed the shooting. [REDACTED] went into the alley to check on JOYNER. [REDACTED] did not know that United States Park Police officer [REDACTED] was present on the scene or that he had shot as well. [REDACTED] saw United States Park Police officer and Task Force officer [REDACTED] standing on or over the gun that JOYNER had dropped. [REDACTED] said, "then hell broke loose." It was dusk out, approximately eight or 8:30 P.M.

[REDACTED] remembered seeing Metropolitan Police Detective [REDACTED] using his radio. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] to get his rifle from the blue car (i.e., the Chevrolet Impala) for the purpose of controlling the crowd and get them to disperse. [REDACTED] slung the rifle over his shoulder, but it didn't intimidate the crowd at all. [REDACTED] believes that the media reported the rifle had been used in the shooting. [REDACTED] spoke to an individual named [REDACTED] LNU who witnessed the shooting and corroborated the officers' actions.

[REDACTED] has been a United States Park Police officer for approximately [REDACTED]

At the beginning of the interview, AUSA [redacted] asked [redacted] to start at the beginning, recalling the events related to TREY JOYNER on the night of 06/08/2009. [redacted] requested a few minutes and left the room with [redacted]. When [redacted] returned, approximately 35 minutes later, he stated that the officers were not prepared to talk because they were "wound too tight." Approximately two hours later, [redacted] returned to be interviewed. [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] of the Chevrolet Impala driven by United States Park Police officer [redacted] turned on his emergency lights and pulsed the siren to pull over TREY JOYNER. JOYNER opened his car door before he stopped his car. JOYNER stopped at the mouth of an alley, exited his vehicle, and had taken a few steps towards the alley. [redacted] opened his door as the Chevrolet Impala was coming to a stop. As he got out of the car, [redacted] heard a metallic-type object hit the ground. JOYNER took a couple of steps from his vehicle as [redacted] ran between the rear of JOYNER's car and the front of the Chevy Impala. [redacted] thought, "the chase is on." JOYNER turned, came back towards his car and bent down. [redacted] arrived at JOYNER as he was picking up the gun, which was right by the open door of JOYNER's car. [redacted] referenced the time from when he left his car to when the shooting occurred to be "very quick."

[redacted] did not know exactly what TREY JOYNER was involved in when United States Park Police officer [redacted] had called [redacted] to assist with a car stop on a guy with a gun. A lookout had informed the United States Park Police officers that JOYNER was in his car and that he had a gun on him. The lookout suggested that the officers stage for a car stop once JOYNER passed by in his car. The officers identified the car and saw it make a right turn onto Holbrook Street. The officers followed JOYNER's car down Holbrook Street to make the stop. The lookout noted that JOYNER had a hat on, but [redacted] never noticed it during the entire incident.

[redacted] the blue Chevrolet Impala. Also in the car were United States Park Police officers [redacted] and [redacted] got behind JOYNER, turned on his emergency lighting, and hit the siren a couple of times. JOYNER pulled over to the left side of the road by an alley. [redacted] immediately got out of the car and onto the sidewalk, but stayed close to the driver side door of the car. JOYNER jumped out of his car with his gun in his waistband and his hands by his waist. JOYNER started to run away but his gun fell out of his pants. JOYNER took approximately one and a half steps toward the alley. [redacted] who was in the front passenger seat of the car driven by [redacted] ran between their car and JOYNER's and grabbed JOYNER as he was trying to pick up the gun. b6

The next thing [REDACTED] remembers is JOYNER saying, "ok, ok" (or something to that effect), standing for a moment, and then dropping to the ground and falling on his back. [REDACTED] did not hear any of the gunshots and did not realize that he had shot, though he recalled the recoil of his gun. He was unsure of the exact time line of the events during the incident. [REDACTED] did not realize that JOYNER had dropped the gun, and therefore he approached JOYNER with his gun drawn as JOYNER lay on the ground. [REDACTED] thought [REDACTED] had gotten shot by JOYNER.

Although [redacted] did not see JOYNER sweep [redacted] with the gun, he did see the barrel of a gun in JOYNER's hand and saw JOYNER pointing the gun at [redacted] face or head. [redacted] was standing at the front passenger side of JOYNER's car with [redacted] behind him. [redacted] estimated that [redacted] is approximately 5'7" tall and that JOYNER was approximately the same height. [redacted] heard [redacted] tell JOYNER to "drop the gun." [redacted] heard a gun shot and saw [redacted] fall, down and away, back from JOYNER while JOYNER spun away toward the alley. [redacted] thought JOYNER had shot [redacted] in the head. [redacted] became emotional during this part of the interview.)

[redacted] said that his memory of things was a little foggy. However, he recalled hearing several/multiple gunshots, which he said occurred very quickly. He also heard someone, or more than one person, yelling, "get on the ground" and/or "get down." [redacted] did not recall shooting, but remembered his gun recoiling. [REDACTED] said that JOYNER appeared coherent and that JOYNER said, "ok, ok," went to his knees slowly, rolled to his side or back, and showed his hands. [REDACTED] saw that JOYNER no longer had a gun when he showed his hands. After JOYNER fell down, [REDACTED] went around the front of JOYNER's car to check on [REDACTED] thinking he was shot. [REDACTED] was very concerned. [REDACTED] saw JOYNER on the ground without a gun, but he did not see when JOYNER had dropped the gun. [REDACTED] saw JOYNER's gun, which had an extended magazine, lying on the ground.

Although he did not see [REDACTED] run over to JOYNER, [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] was holding JOYNER's head up and telling him that an ambulance was on the way. A crowd had gathered, which began to approach the officers. [REDACTED] knew that the crowd needed to be controlled and told [REDACTED] "you got to watch our back." Eventually Metropolitan Police Department officers arrived and were able to get the crowd under control. [REDACTED] knew that JOYNER had been handcuffed at some point, but did not see it happen.
